

In Uncertain Time.... Be Driven Higher

That we live in uncertain times, is not uncertain. We certainly are!

Our political atmosphere is charged with end of the world predictions, projected solutions to save us and enough nonsense to fill the deepest sea.

Our economic prospects falter under the pale of a downward spiral perpetuated by massive shifts in policy, uncertainty on Wall Street and the prospects of huge deficits and more taxes.

Our health care is inundated by Covid-19, on top of its already heavy load.

Public figures pontificate for attention and position and for gain.

Weapons of war are being sharpened for potential conflict and we, the people are treated like pawns on the chess board of power brokers and kings.

In time like these, we need an anchor. We need a savior. We need a bright light and a clear path and the glimmer of hope that grows ever brighter ahead.

In time like these we need the faith of Abraham and the vision of David and the hope of Hosea. Yes, in times like these we need to find something, someone, some perspective that drives us beyond the haze of the natural and into the arena of the mind of the Creator God.

In Uncertain Times we need to be driven higher...

It is all too easy to hear the clamor of the negative, to cringe at the screams of hell and to want to run away from it all, close it out and just crawl in a dark place.

But there is a voice, clear and sweet yet soft and not a yell at all, but clear and compelling.

“Come up Higher!”

“Come up where the air is clear and the vision clean and the perspective real. Come up Higher and see the entire panorama of the plans and purposes of God...”

Come, walk with me. See the scope of history and He who is!

He is Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. He is not just a casual observer of the confusion of human effort, He is the content of all creations, the substance of all truth and the author of all history. He is the Lord of Glory, the Great ‘I AM!’ the ever-loving Father, the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Come, step up higher to see reality in all of its glory and splendor. He is not finished with this old world yet and He has not forgotten His plan and purpose. All is well.

Be driven Higher. Come away from the fear, from the noise and from the manipulations of politicians, the press, and those who plan for their own power and control. Come to peace! Come to the Cross! Come up Higher.

Rethink your emotions and cast off the fear and plan for a bright future.

Jeremiah 29:11 - For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

All is well!
